"Scheherazade is the perfect place when you're looking for a present: they sell all sorts of glam girlie things and also have an excellent range of presents for men (cufflinks, wallets, hip flasks and more) and offer high quality leather boxes which can be personalised with name or initials – which I found the ideal solution when stuck for a present for a nephew's 21st, the best man, etc. etc.! They're open only by appointment (& often have really good discounts available!)."
